Presenting InfoWorld

The one personal computer information source that delivers ...

More Facts and Figures

The world of personal computing is exploding daily. In fact, it's nearly impossible to go through a day without some exposure to microcomputers ... at work, in banks, supermarkets, restaurants, service stations ... wherever people are processing information for other people.

If you'd like to take a more active part in it ... if you're committed to learning all you can about personal computers ... or if you already own a personal computer but want the big picture beyond your own small window ... please be aware of this simple fact.

There's only one source that gives you everything you need to know and that's InfoWorld.

To give you a better idea of what you're up against without

InfoWorld: Recently, it was estimated that there are more than 150 makers of personal computers, several dozen established manufacturers of computers and office equipment and more than 100 companies selling the communications gear that's needed to link these machines together. And all of these people are coming out with conflicting claims!

To protect yourself ... to avoid "option shock" ... get the straight facts you need in InfoWorld.

Unbiased Product Reviews & Ratings

In this dynamic industry, InfoWorld is the only unbiased source that actually rates the products for you. Our board of more than 80 experts tests hundreds of different products and each week we publish 5 to 10 of the most significant findings. After all, if you wouldn't see a movie without first reading the reviews, why should you invest up to $5000 without getting advice from some of the country's best computer critics?

A Broader Perspective

Along with the weekly news and reviews in InfoWorld, you'll also find a series of refreshingly candid columns, featuring a lively mix of opinions and viewpoints ... as well as practical, workable answers to your toughest questions.

A Better Deal

For only 39¢ a week, you can receive InfoWorld at your home or office! That's a savings of 74% (nearly $57) off the newsstand price of $1.50. An incredible value in this age of soaring prices, don't you agree? Take advantage of this timely offer by returning the Order Form today!

All the News

Not just the news from a few top industry leaders, but all the latest developments in personal computing as they happen! That's what you'll get when you subscribe to InfoWorld, because whether you own a microcomputer now ... or are thinking about it ... what happens "out there" today is going to impact on your choices tomorrow. Remember ... the new breakthroughs ... the new products ... the new people on the personal computing scene appear first in InfoWorld.

Weekly Coverage

Others wait to bring you stories that are a month old. But InfoWorld's unique weekly frequency gives you the timeliness no other computer publication can deliver. Did you know that over 5000 new product announcements were unveiled first in the pages of

"InfoWorld occupies a unique niche in the realm of computer media. First, it's a weekly, while the rest are all monthlies ... It covers industry news and it reviews new computers and software of all types. Its critiques are the most comprehensive of those in any of these publications. Still, the articles are remarkably readable even to computer novices." — The Christian Science Monitor

Get on the fast track with InfoWorld — the only weekly magazine about personal computing.

Candid Columns

Each week, InfoWorld's regular collection of columnists and pundits analyze, report, comment and poke fun at the computer industry ... the people in it, the investment opportunities, the changing entertainment and home lifestyles. Our sustaining belief: It's people, not machines, that make personal computing so fascinating.

"The biggest bargain, and probably the single best source of up-to-date information on the whole field of personal computing, is a weekly ... called InfoWorld." — The Washingtonian

Common Sense Contents

To make reading and using InfoWorld even easier for you, we've organized our publication to reflect the way personal computers are thought about, created, used and maintained. Simply scan these sections for the practical information you need: News, Using Micros, Communications, Software, Hardware and Industry. Relax! From your very first issue of InfoWorld, you'll be able to find your way around!

Featured Cover Stories

Each week, InfoWorld examines an important subject in depth, from many different perspectives. Recent examples: Computers in the Closet: Have You Used Your Micro Today? ... Videodisc Revolution: New Realism in Games ... Integrated Software: Linking Applications into One Product ... Integrated Software: Window on the Future? ... Can UNIX Ever Fit Personal Computers?

Product Reviews

InfoWorld is the only place where you can get product ratings to guide you in your purchasing decisions. Our talented review board evaluates everything from $20 games ... to $2000 financial planning programs ... to $5000 hard disk drives ... and issues weekly reports like the sample pictured. Recent examples: VisiOn Window Manager, Word, Lotus 1-2-3, TK! Solver, Epson's QX 10, IBM's PCjr. and Apple's Macintosh.

"InfoWorld offers well-researched and thoughtful analysis on application software." — LIST, September, 1983

"InfoWorld is a weekly and offers the only real news and regular attempts at irreverent humor in the world of computer magazines."

— COMPUTER Q & A, Peter McWilliams, Universal PressSyndicate

"Of the more than 80 periodicals jamming the racks ... InfoWorld is the best single news source on micros." — INC Magazine

Summary

SuperCalc3 turns this first-rate spreadsheet into a first-generation integrated program. Its graphics capabilities — in color — are impressive. The data-management portion is somewhat less substantial but well done. Documentation is excellent all-around. Even if it didn't have such a reasonable price, we would still recommend Sorcim's latest effort.
